(Optician)

Panaji, dated: 21-11-1992.

AWARD

In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (d) of Sub. Section (1) of Sec. 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 the Government of Goa, by its order No. 28/27/92-LAB dated 31-7-1992 has referred the following issue for adjudication by this Tribunal.

(1) "Whether the action of the management of M/s Carey & Franklin (Optician), Panaji, in terminating the services of Miss Rehana Bi Sheikh, Clerk, with effect from 17-5-1991 is legal and justified?

(2) If not, to what relief the workperson is entitled?"

2. On receipt of this reference, a case at No. IT/49/92 was registered and notices were ordered to be sent to both the parties. The notice was duly served on Party II which appeared in this proceeding. However, the notice sent on the address of Party I-Workman was returned by the postal authorities probably because the addressee was not known. Thereafter on 14-10-1992 neither the workman nor the employer appeared before this Tribunal and hence the case was again posted on 20-11-1992 on which date there was no appearance on behalf of either side. In view of the matter and regard being had to the provisions contained in Rule 10(B) (9) of the Rules framed under the Industrial Disputes Act the only course open for me is to dismiss this reference for default.

3. I, therefore pass the following order.

Order

The reference is dismissed for default with no order as to costs.

Inform the Government accordingly.

AWARD

In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (d) of Sub. Section (1) of Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (Central Act 14 of 1947), the Government of Goa by order dated 11-10-90 bearing No. 28/53/90-LAB referred the following dispute for adjudication by this Tribunal.

"Whether the action of the management of M/s. The Old Anchor, Dalmia Resorts International Private Limited, Cavellossim, in terminating the services of Shri Ashok Raiker, Assistant Kitchen Steward, with effect from 13-5-1990, is legal and justified?

If not, to what relief the workman is entitled?"

2. On receipt of the reference, a case was registered under No. IT/47/90 and registered A. D. notice was issued to the parties. In pursuance to the said notice the parties put in their appearance. The Party I (For short, 'Union') filed statement of claim at Exb. 3. In the statement of claim, the Union contended that the workman Ashok Raiker was employed as a trainee in the department of Kitchen Stewarding of the Party II (For short, 'employer') from 10th Feb., 1989 on payment of Rs. 700/- per month as a stipend. The employer illegally terminated the services of the workman Ashok Raiker w.e.f. 15th March, 1989 and the workman raised industrial dispute before the Deputy Labour Commissioner, Margao. During the conciliation proceedings a settlement was arrived at whereby the employer agreed to take back the workman in employment from 13-11-1989. However, when the workman went to join the services to the Hotel of the employer on 13-11-1989, he was told that there were instructions from the management not to allow him to enter the premises. The Union contended that though as per the settlement, the workman was to be taken in employment from 13-11-89, he was refused employment from that day till 5-12-89. On 12-5-90 the workman worked for the first half of the shift i.e. from 7.00 a.m. to 11.00 a.m. and thereafter he was supposed to work in the 2nd half of the shift i.e. from 3.00 p.m. to 7.00 p.m. However, he did not work for the 2nd half shift as he was sick and after recovering from sickness he went to join duties on 15-5-90 with the certificate issued by E.S.I. However, the workman was not allowed to enter the Hotel premises. The Union has contended that the act on the part of the employer amounted to termination of the services of the workman Shri Raiker which was illegal and unjustified. The Union further contended that before the termination of the services, no enquiry was held against Mr. Raiker. The Union therefore claimed that the workman Raiker was entitled for reinstatement with full back wages and continuity in service from the date of the refusal of employment and also was entitled to wages from 13-11-89 to 5-12-89. The employer filed a written statement stating that there was no industrial dispute as the employer did not terminate the services of the workman. The employer contended that the workman ceased to be in service as a result of the completion of the probationary period. The employer stated that the workman was appointed as a Trainee in the Kitchen Stewarding Department w.e.f. 10-2-89 and it was found that he was very irregular and indifferent towards his duties. The workman was also not carrying out instructions given to him by his Sectional head nor he was following the training programme laid down. It was for this reason that his training period was terminated. The employer admitted that there was a settlement arrived at before the Dy. Labour Commissioner, Margao. The employer contended that the workman Mr. Raiker was required to report for duties on 13th November, 1989. However, he reported for duty on 6-12-89. The workman Mr. Raiker was agreed to be taken in employment as a probationary workman. The employer stated that during the period of probation performance of Mr. Raiker was found to be unsatisfactory and his records indicated that no purpose would be served in extending his probationary period. Therefore, Mr. Burra, Unit Financial Controller of the employer told the workman Raiker on 5th May, 1990 that the management had no option but to treat this probationary period as being ceased automatically on and from 12th May, 1990. The employer stated that the workman Mr. Raiker did not report for the 2nd part of the shift on 12th May, 1990 on which day his statement of account and all his legal dues were kept ready. However, the same was given to him on 15th May, 1990 but the workman Mr. Raiker refused to accept the same. The employer denied that there was any termination of service of the workman Shri Raiker by the employer. The employer also denied that there was violation of Section 73 of the ESI Act or there was any victimisation. The employer contended that its action in not extending the probation period was legal, proper and justified and therefore the workman Raiker was not entitled to any reliefs. Thereafter the Union filed rejoinder at Exb. 11 controverting the pleadings made by the employer in the written statement.

3. After the issues were framed at Exb. 13, the case was fixed for recording the evidence of the employer on 1-12-94 the Union and the Employer submitted that the dispute between the workman and the employer was amicably settled and they filed the Memo of settlement dated 1-12-94 Exb. 15. The Union and the Employer prayed that the consent award be passed in terms of the settlement. I have gone through the terms of the settlement-Exb. 15 and I find that the same are in the interest of the workman. I therefore, accept the submissions made by the Union and the Employer and pass the consent award in terms of the settlement dated 1st December 1994 - Exb. 15.
